

Brian,
Ken, Mary,
and Tomas,
let me welcome
you to this,
your first trip...

...into the
NEGATIVE ZONE!

This is weird.

This is very weird.

You get used to it. Just... don't throw up.

NOT A PROBLEM

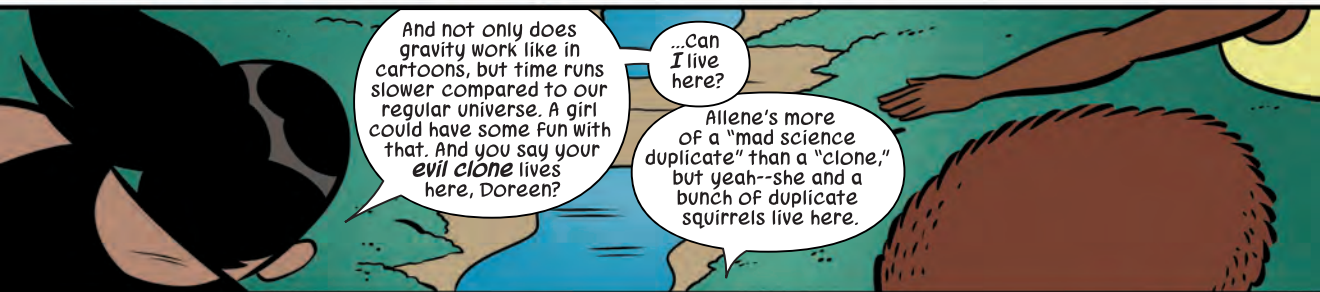

SEE, ON ACCOUNT OF HOW I NO LONGER HAVE A DIGESTIVE SYSTEM, I--

So in the Negative Zone, space is filled with perfectly pressurized breathable air?

Yeah. The negative version of empty space is comfortably pressurized space! Apparently!

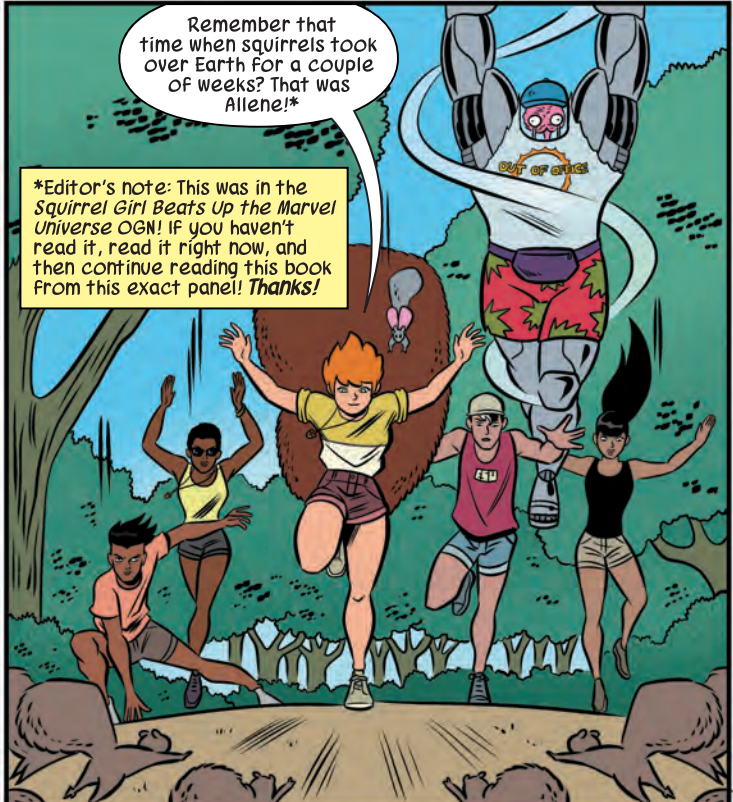

WE CAN TALK ABOUT MY INTERNAL WORKINGS IN DETAIL LATER

And not only does gravity work like in cartoons, but time runs slower compared to our regular universe. A girl could have some fun with that. And you say your evil clone lives here, Doreen?

...Can I live here?

Allene's more of a "mad science duplicate" than a "clone," but yeah--she and a bunch of duplicate squirrels live here.

Remember that time when squirrels took over Earth for a couple of weeks? That was Allene!*

*Editor's note: This was in the Squirrel Girl Beats Up the Marvel Universe OGN. If you haven't read it, read it right now, and then continue reading this book from this exact panel! Thanks!

But she's better now, and she lives here, fighting Negative Zone threats and keeping Regular Earth safe. Tippy and Nancy and I come by to hang out pretty often, which is why you're all here. She wanted me to bring you here so she could show off--

--this awesome planet my squirrels and I made. Hey Doreen!

Who could that mysterious off-panel voice be? I won't lie, it's Allene, it's clearly Allene. As far as end-of-the-page cliff-hangers go, this is not the most mysterious one, but you should keep reading anyway!!

Allene! Love the new hair.

Right? Turns out there's gateways to alternate universes here, and I peked in on one of them, and-- let's say I was inspired.

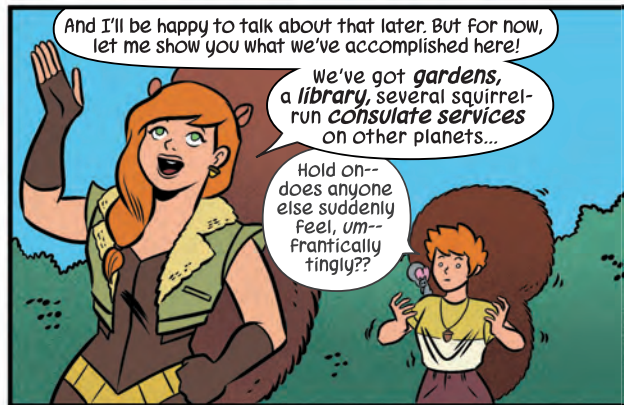

That's awesome. That is objectively the most awesome way to get a new hairstyle.

I thought so. Hey Nancy, hey Tippy, hey Tomas, hey Ken, hey Mary, hey Brain Drain!

HELLO

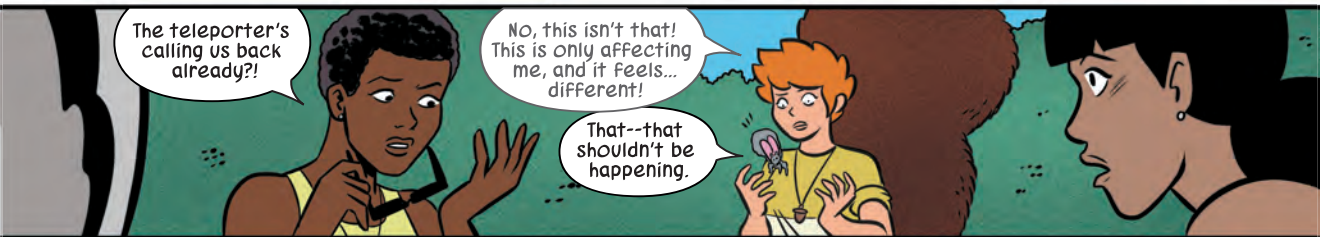

I HAVE MANY QUESTIONS ON THE SUBJECT OF HOW YOU BOTH EXPERIENCE SELFHOOD

And I'll be happy to talk about that later. But for now, let me show you what we've accomplished here!

We've got gardens, a library, several squirrel-run consulate services on other planets...

Hold on-- does anyone else suddenly feel, um-- frantically tingly??

The teleporter's calling us back already?!

No, this isn't that! This is only affecting me, and it feels... different!

That--that shouldn't be happening.

Someone's pulling some stupid!

Whatever it is, I don't like it, I'll tell you

Sorry for suggesting the idea of "a network of squirrel-run consulates across other planets" and not following up on it. Until the spin-off series arrives, you'll just have to rely on your imagination to describe the laughs, loves, and wacky workplace hijinks they get up to every week!

What.

Whoa!
